THE LOG-BOOK

The Iroquois, Honolulu's own flagship, has come out the marine railway and is now in excellent sea-going shape.

The schooner Dauntless will get away some time tomorrow in ballast for lumber ports where she will again load for Honolulu.

The transport Lagoon will be looked for at about 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

The "Red Shirt Brigade," or stevedores, will have another grand turnout and parade at 10 a.m. next Sunday afternoon. Molino, one of their number, died yesterday and will be buried at the time stated, the funeral being from Siliva's undertakers parlors.

Departing yesterday afternoon was the W. G. Hall for Kauai port. It is suspected that she had a rough time of it crossing the channel.

The Claudine will leave at 5 o'clock this afternoon for Maui ports and Hilo.

Captain Miller is quoted as saying that the Concord went to the South Seas after a cargo of crude guano, but would probably sail at Christmas, and before returning to Honolulu.

Yesterday the Kukui postponed her departure from hour to hour and finally set it over to next Monday. The weather was so bad that the trip to Molokai in it would have been most disagreeable, and it was thought best to wait. The Kukui has moved around to the Inter Island shuttle at the Bishop slip where she is taking coal.

Captain Kelly, of the Andrew Welsh, probably wishes today that he was back in that "dear Honolulu." He went out yesterday in the teeth of the storm, and, as he was bucking a norther, undoubtedly went to leeward of Niihau. When he does get a start for Fajaco, he will likely be 400 miles farther from the Golden Gate than he was when lying at the dock in Honolulu.

The cable schooner Flora Ward, which has been laid up since early in January, will leave about April 1 for another visit to the cable station at Midway Islands. About the last of next week she will begin brushing up and taking supplies for the trip.

Only about thirty-five passengers can be taken at this port by the China next Tuesday for the Coast, that vessel having left Yokohama with her cabin almost filled.

Yesterday and today breakers on the reef off port have presented an inspiring spectacle to lovers of nature's absurdities. The high seas cracking on the coral barrier have kept going an almost continuous wall of white foam; sounds of the bursting waves have come in continuously like the low rumbling thunder, and the ghostly cry of the sea-gulls has kept time with the roar and splash of the storm King's men.

A negro sailor named John Brown has sworn to a libel against the bark R. P. Ritter, in which he claims damages in the sum of $20,000, for the breaking of both his legs while engaged in discharging freight from that vessel. He sets up the plea that the ropes used in swinging freight were rotten, and that, on account of this defect, a wine barrel fell upon him and broke his legs. The Ritter is now on her way to the coast.

Yesterday the steamer Main, on the Hawaii coast, had 5,000 bags of raw sugar and was to take 6,000 bags at Honolulu today. Weather permitting, she should arrive back here late Saturday or early Sunday morning. This storm, however, may hold her back until next week.

The Niihau, arriving this morning from the Hamakua coast, brought the following cargo: 6144 bags Honokaa for F. A. Rehner & Co., 31 bags timber for Hawaiian Dredging Co., 1 bag soil and three Japanese baskets. The following sugar was reported left on Hawaii: Kukauan, 7,180; Paiaiai 31,000; Paauhan, 6,400; Honokaa, 5,000; Kuhiaheo, 5,000.

For Maui ports and Hilo per Clipping, sailing at 5 p. m. today.
